Executive Order

Exile from the States of the Union and The United States of America

It is determined by the National assembly for the Government of The United States of America that the Declaration of Interdependence of the WORLD AFFAIRS COUNCIL OF PHILADELPHIA, is in violation of the Law of Nations and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and is therefore, a direct attack against National sovereignty and this National Government.

It is also acknowledged by the National assembly for the Government of The United States of America, that each person is born free and equal and, endowed with reason and conscience, each person is free to form any and all political allegiances determined to be in the best interest of that person.

Therefore, by the authority vested in the office of the Governor by the National assembly for the Government of The United States of America, the following is hereby ordered:

That, the political decision of association and allegiance to the Declaration of Interdependence, as demonstrated by voluntary signature of the persons so desiring such allegiance, or by the voluntary act of enforcement of its principles conducted by non-signatory persons, be honored by all offices of the Government of The United States of America, and

That, all records of the Government of The United States of America be made to accurately reflect this voluntary adherence to the Declaration of Interdependece's threat against human rights, and

That, as consequence of such adherence and enforcement, any existing claim or intent to make a claim by JOHN J. MOAKLEY, of residency, citizenship or nationality within the States of the Union within The United States of America, is hereby revoked under pain of involuntary exile, and

That, all offices serving the Government of The United States of America, shall take all necessary action permitted by law to carry out this order.

Nothing in this order shall be construed to impair or otherwise affect:
(i) the human rights of JOHN J. MOAKLEY, except the right to claim a residency or Nationality within the States of the Union or The United States of America to receive ones family heritage; and

(ii) the right of JOHN J. MOAKLEY, within three (3) days of the date of this order, to formally dispute this order; such dispute to be heard within the Human Rights Tribunal International, a court of proper venue and jurisdiction over such matters.

So ordered and signed this 353rd day in the year of Yahweh, 6018 (March 6, 2017)
